

Independent Drama Lesson: Severe Weather Warning

Learning Objective:

To use drama skills independently to create a short performance about a severe weather emergency.

Instructions:

- Read each task carefully
- Complete all written sections
- Perform your drama
- Spend around 45–60 minutes

Task 1: Getting Started

1. Write three words to describe how you would feel during a severe weather warning:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

2. List three types of severe weather:

- _____

- _____

- _____

Task 2: Create Your Drama Idea

Choose your weather type: Storm / Flood / Hurricane / Tornado / Snowstorm / Other:

Where is your scene set?

Characters (you can play more than one):

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Task 3: Script or Plan

Beginning (weather warning announced):

Middle (what goes wrong?):

Ending (what happens?):

Task 4: Performance

Perform your scene. You can:

- Act it out in your room
- Use different voices for characters
- Use simple props (phone, coat, etc.)
- Record your performance (optional)

Performance Self-Check

Tick what you included:

Clear emotions

Tension

Clear storyline

Voice variation

Body language

Task 5: Reflection

What did you do well?

What would you improve?

How did you show the impact of severe weather?

Extension Challenge (Optional)

Create a freeze frame showing the weather at its worst.

Describe your freeze frame:
